SPRING 2026

Together, We Can Do It

There’s a lot happening in our community—and even more opportunities to get involved, build relationships, and create the kind of neighborhood we all want to live in. Here’s what’s new and coming up:

Community Center Activation

Our new community center is coming to life! We're expanding activities for all ages—think workshops, youth programming, wellness classes, and shared spaces to gather. Have an idea or want to lead something? We'd love to hear from you.

Neighborhood Summit

The Grand Rapids Neighborhood Summit is a transformational day-long learning experience rooted in Summit's core values of resident voice and racial equity. Summit brings together Grand Rapids residents, neighborhood leaders, city staff, and community stakeholders to learn, strategize, and build meaningful connections while strengthening neighborhoods and fostering belonging across community. The overarching goal is to help make Grand Rapids a more equitable place for all to live, work, and play.

Spring Tip
Out in your front yard picking up the yard, taking out the BBQ, or starting a project? Get to know your neighbors - say hi, ask them how they are or about how long they have lived in the neighborhood, connect with other neighbors they know you do not, share stories of the great space we share together.
Front Yard Friday - rotate houses to create a space to share and hang on these beautiful Spring Days, BYOC (Chair).
Get a walking group together, or better yet Plogging - grab a plastic bag and pick up trash on your walk :)

Have a Block Party this Summer, its a great way to connect and build community on your block! If you need help with navigating this - reach out we can help!!
